

HAWAIIAN EVENING AT THE HOME OF C. H. MURPHY

D. Keola Kallimail, a noted Hawaiian orator, with his wife and son, left yesterday for his home in Honolulu. The family have been visiting in Utah for the past three months.

Prior to his departure he was the guest of honor at a delightful party given by Castle J. Murphy and wife at their home, 2555 Adams avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy became acquainted with Mr. Kallimail, while Mr. Murphy was serving as a missionary in the Hawaiian mission of the Mormon church.

The party was a most elaborate affair and the home was decorated with souvenirs collected in the Sandwich Islands.

Most of the program was rendered in the Hawaiian language, a number of native singers contributing songs of their home-land. Among them was Joseph H. Bird, the well known singer and composer who now resides in Salt Lake City. Mr. Bird also sang some original songs, both in his native and adopted languages. The accompaniments by the group of hosts were played on a Hawaiian instrument called the "ukelele."

Another novel feature was the rendition of the Hawaiian song "Na Mele Hawaii" by the Hawaiians and several returned missionaries who were present.

A delicious supper was served in Hawaiian style, consisting of "suckling pig" and "poe" the favorite Hawaiian dishes, and other native and American dainties. The serving was done by Miss Mabel Packer and Leah Murphy. Miss Murphy also served punch.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. D. Keola Kallimail and son David; Mr. Joseph Bird and Joseph Budd, Hawaiians; Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warner, Mrs. E. M. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pincock, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Packer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Calvert, Mrs. Eliza Stevens, Mrs. S. J. Packer, Miss Winnifred Crispin, Emma Murphy, Alta Calvert, Reta Alona Fowler, Mabel Packer, Leelah Murphy and Messrs. D. T. Morrison, Earl Packer, Harold Packer, W. A. Peepe, Thomas Mann, Robert Howey, Irwin Fowler and George Fowler.

CROSS ESTATE PAYS TO STATE $563 INHERITANCE

Settlement of the amount of the inheritance tax due the state in the matter of the estate of Annie S. Cross, deceased, was before Judge Howell this morning. The estate is valued at $25,294, a further computation showing that after all expenses incident to the funeral and administering the estate, and $10,000 exemption, had been deducted, there was remaining the sum of $11,237.87 upon which inheritance tax of 5 per cent should be paid.

The amount of the tax was stated by Judge Howell to be $563.64. The administrator of the estate has drawn a check in favor of state treasurer for that amount.

BEET SUGAR HAS TO OVERCOME A LOSS OF $1.13 A BAG

Some misunderstanding seems to have arisen concerning the tariff figures given out by Judge H. H. Rolapp upon his return from the meeting of the Beet Sugar association in Chicago. The sale price of eastern cane sugar, laid down on the Missouri river, was given by him to be $3.50 per 100 pounds. This figure includes a profit to the refiners of at least 75 cents per bag.

On the other hand it costs the Amalgamated Sugar company $2.75, with out any profit whatever, to lay down a bag of sugar at the Missouri river in competition with the eastern cane refiners. This item alone means an actual loss difference of 93 cents. To this amount must be added the usual differential between cane and beet sugar, which is 20 cents per bag, so that, with sugar on the free list, the beet sugar concerns would actually lose $1.13 per bag before they could compete with the cane refiners upon an equal basis.

THOUGHT HE HAD LOPEZ, THE BANDIT

James Burrup, a middle aged man, came into the city jail last night with a Mexican in tow, and was locked up on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Burrup, who had a cargo of spirits aboard, had seen the Mexican on Lincoln avenue near Twenty-fifth street and brought him to the city jail at the point of a gun, imagining that he had Lopez, the bandit.

When the two arrived, Guard Lever, who was in the office, asked the Mexican what he wanted. To his surprise he was informed that Burrup had arrested him. Burrup corroborated the statement, giving as his reason that the Mexican was Lopez and that he had seen him washing blood from his hands.

The guard searched the pair and found a Browning automatic revolver in the side pocket of Burrup's coat. The other man was unarmed, but was held for investigation. He gave his name as J. J. Dalton.

GETTING READY FOR IMPROVEMENTS IN YARDS

R. B. Robinson, engineer of the construction department of the Oregon Short Line, passed through Ogden yesterday enroute to Alexander, Idaho.

Mr. Robinson is in direct charge of the extension and remodeling of the tracks in the Ogden yards and is expected to return with a party of surveyors Friday or Saturday. The work of staking the new track lines will begin at that time.

In the meantime a bridge gang under the direction of construction foreman F. A. Burnham is building a retaining wall and extending the concrete bridge, at the Twenty-eighth street and Pacific avenue crossing, fourteen feet to the east. The east tracks will be moved a corresponding distance.

The telegraph line along Pacific avenue is being moved to make room for the double tracking of the Union Pacific at the south entrance to the yards.

Several cars of 80-pound rails have been unloaded but the switch frogs and other materials have not yet arrived.

GREEK THOUGHT HE WAS ABOUT TO BE SHOT

The police patrol made a quick run this morning to the Greek barber shop at 130 Twenty-fifth street, where a wordy altercation was in progress.

One of the barbers got an idea that one of his countrymen, who works in the saloon just east of the barber shop, was about to use a gun on him and called the police. Sergeant Mohlman settled the affair before either of the belligerents came to grief and there were no arrests made.

ACADEMY STUDENTS SEE THE LOCAL PACKING PLANT

Tuesday afternoon the third-year girls of the Domestic Science department of Weber academy, under the direction of Miss Cragun and Miss Ensign, made a visit to the Ogden Packing and Provision company. Through the courtesy of Mr. Hunter the girls were shown through the whole plant and every process, from the time the animals were brought to the place to the packing and storing of the meat, was explained in detail.

Professor William Z. Terry occupied the devotional period of the school Monday morning. He told a Indian story which came under his immediate observation at one time when he had joined a company of miners in search for gold. The story taught a lesson of self-sacrifice in this certain savage that was well worth imitating. Professor Terry said that he didn't find many gold nuggets on his trip, but this lesson was probably the most valuable nugget and one that would remain with him longer.

Tuesday evening Miss Vera Tracy entertained the members of the senior class at her home on Twenty-first street. A most delightful evening was spent in playing games and singing school songs. Another pleasing and almost indispensable part of the evening's program were the dainty refreshments served.

Wednesday morning the first period was devoted to student body affairs. No special program was arranged. Each class separated to go to its own room where business relating to each special class was discussed.

On Friday evening the fourth number of the Weber academy lecture course will be given in the Ogden tabernacle. Utah artists will make it one of the most pleasing programs of all those on the course.

The Lindsay Land & Live Stock company of this city has commenced suit in the district court against the Southern Pacific company to recover $1500 alleged damage for killing and maiming certain sheep at a point not far distant from Corinne, November 26, 1913.

The company alleges that on November 26 of this year while its herders were driving sheep along the right-of-way of the defendant company, by reason of the fence to the railroad track having been left down and unrepaired, the sheep came upon the track and a number of them run over by a passing train owned by the defendant company, killing 125, and maiming 100 others, all of the value of $1500.

Bangasser has received notice that he can add five clerks more to the regular number. About December 15 seventeen or eighteen extra men will be placed at work.

Postmaster W. W. Browning has mapped out a plan for use in deliveries of Christmas packages. The city has been divided into four districts. Twenty-fourth street and Washington avenue being the dividing lines. One wagon with two carriers will be assigned to each district to handle parcel post matter only. ## HEALTH OF ARMY IS MARVELOUS

Washington, Dec. 3.—Remarkable progress in military sanitation and improvement in the health of the army is recorded in the annual report of Surgeon General George H. Toney. The surgeon general says that it seems more than marvelous that among the number of men in the camps at Texas City and Galveston and along the Mexico border constantly exposed to infection, not a single case of typhoid has occurred.

An interesting feature of the report is the conclusion of the board on tropical diseases that white men cannot advantageously remain many years in the tropics. It is recommended that if the troops are to remain in the Philippines they should live under the most favorable conditions and in cool quarters.
